

Tonya Patrick Joins The Bank of Fayetteville

For immediate release: July 14, 2008 — Mary Beth Brooks, President & CEO of The Bank of Fayetteville, announces the addition of Tonya Patrick to The Bank of Fayetteville as Vice President and General Counsel. Patrick's duties will include management of problem loans, supervision of outside counsel and litigation, and management of special assets. Patrick will also provide general legal support for the bank. Patrick previously worked as an attorney in a private practice in Fayetteville. Patrick earned a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Arkansas in 1990 and earned her Juris Doctorate from the University of Arkansas School of Law in 2005. Patrick lives in Fayetteville with her husband, W.H. Taylor, who is also an attorney in Fayetteville.

####

For more information:

Amy Whittenburg
Marketing Director
The Bank of Fayetteville
479.263.3096
awhittenburg@bof.com